CHAPTER 218—S. F. No. 438.

An act to amend Section 10273, General Statutes 1923, relating to the disposition of carcasses of diseased animals.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Disposition of carcasses.—That section 10273, General Statutes 1923, be amended to read as follows:

"10273. Every person owning or having in charge any domestic animal that has died or been killed on account of disease shall immediately bury the carcass thereof at least three feet deep in the ground or cause the same to be consumed by fire. Provided, however, that the live stock sanitary board, through its secretary and executive officer, may issue a permit to owners of rendering plants, provided such rendering plants are operated and conducted as required by law, to remove carcasses of domestic animals and fowl that have died or have been killed on account of disease, over the public highways to their plants for rendering purposes in accordance with the rules and regulations adopted by the live stock sanitary board relative to transportation, rendering, and all other provisions deemed by said board to be necessary to prevent the spread of disease. No person shall sell or offer to sell, or give away such carcass when the animal died or was killed on account of disease, nor convey the same along any public road or upon any land not his own; unless in accordance with a special permit as hereinbefore provided. Nor shall any person negligently or wilfully permit diseased animals owned or controlled by him to escape his control or to run at large. Every violation of any provision of this section shall be a misdemeanor."

Approved April 14, 1927. .
