CHAPTER 283—S. F. No. 839.

An act to amend Section 9221, General Statutes of Minnesota for 1923, relating to an affidavit of prejudice or bias of a judge.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Affidavit of prejudice or bias of judge.—That Section 9221 of the General Statutes of the State of Minnesota for 1923 be and hereby is amended to read as follows:

“9221. Affidavit of prejudice or bias of Judge.—Any party to a cause pending in a district court having two or more judges, within one day after it is ascertained which judge is to preside at the trial thereof, or at the hearing of any motion, order to show cause, or argument on demurrer, may make and file with such judge and serve on the opposite party an affidavit stating that, on account of prejudice or bias on the part of such judge, he has good reason to believe, and does believe, that he cannot have a fair trial or hearing thereof, and thereupon such judge shall forthwith secure some other judge of the same or another district to preside at the trial of such cause or hearing of the motion, demurrer or order to show cause, and shall continue the cause on the calendar until such judge can be present. In criminal actions such affidavit may be made and filed with such judge by the defendant not less than two days before the expiration of the time allowed him by law to prepare for trial, and in either of such cases such presiding judge shall be incapacitated to try such cause: Provided, that in criminal cases such judge, for the purpose of securing a speedy trial, may, in his discretion, change the place of trial to another county.”

Approved April 19, 1927.

CHAPTER 284—S. F. No. 901.

An act to amend Section 4624, General Statutes 1923, relating to the keeping of records of children committed to the care of the State Board of Control.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Records of children to be kept by Board of Control.—That Section 4624, General Statutes 1923, be hereby amended to read as follows:

4624. The board shall cause to be kept at the home a record, containing the names, ages and residences of all children received; the names, residence, occupation and character, so far as known, of the living parents; the record of military or naval service of the parents, if any, in the force of the United States, with a separate index thereof; the date of reception, and of adoption or indenture, with the name, occupation and residence of the person with whom the child is placed; the date and cause of the cancellation of any contract; the date and cause of discharge; and a brief history of each child during minority.

Approved April 19, 1927.

CHAPTER 285—S. F. No. 902.

An act to amend Section 4365, General Statutes 1923, relating to the extending of relief by the soldiers home board of the Minnesota Soldiers Home.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Widow, deserted wife or minor children—relief.—That Section 4365, General Statutes 1923, be hereby amended so as to read as follows:

4365. In addition to the persons to whom the soldiers' home board is now authorized to extend relief outside the Minnesota soldiers' home from the soldiers' relief fund, the board is hereby authorized to extend relief, outside the home, to the widow, deserted wife or any minor child under fourteen years of age of any honorably discharged ex-soldier, ex-sailor, or ex-marine who served in the army or navy of the United State during the War of the Rebellion, or World War provided any such widow or deserted wife is more than fifty-five (55) years of age and shall have married her soldier husband prior to the year of 1903; provided, further, that no such relief shall be granted under the provisions of this act to any person unless he or she shall have been a resident of the state of Minnesota for at least five (5) years next preceding his or her application for such relief. The granting of such relief and the extent and character thereof shall in all cases be in the discretion of the board and subject to such terms as it may prescribe.

Approved April 19, 1927.
