CHAPTER 376—H. F. No. 1104

An act providing for a tract index of all lands registered under the Torrens system of land titles to be kept in the office of the Register of Deeds in counties which now have or which may hereafter have a population of 400,000 inhabitants or over, in certain cases.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Registrar of Titles to provide tract index.—The Register of Deeds in counties now having or which may hereafter have a population of 400,000 inhabitants or over, and in which the business of the Register of Titles is conducted in a separate place from that of the Register of Deeds, shall provide a tract index of all lands registered under what is known as the Torrens System of land titles, and the same shall be kept in the office of the Register of Deeds in such county or counties for the use of receiving clerks in checking the properties listed therein with the properties described in the instruments presented for record.

Sec. 2. Additional help.—The Register of Deeds of such county or counties may assign the duty of compiling such index to one or more of his deputies, which deputy or deputies shall be paid for extra time so employed additional salary and compensation at the same rate and in the same manner as is paid them for regular service, providing, however, that the total sum for such extra service shall not exceed $1,600.00.

Sec. 3. County Auditor to draw warrants.—The County Auditor of such county or counties shall, upon request of the Register of Deeds, issue his warrant or warrants in payment for such additional service, in amounts designated by such Register of Deeds and the same shall be drawn on the county revenue fund.

Approved April 20, 1927.
