CHAPTER 101—S. F. No. 398

An act to amend Section 8679, General Statutes 1923, relating to the property which shall constitute a bar to an allowance to mothers for the support of dependent children in their own homes.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. What property a bar.—That Section 8679, General Statutes 1923, be amended to read as follows:

“8679. The ownership by a mother of personal property of the value of one hundred dollars, exclusive of appropriate clothing and household furniture and of such tools, implements and domestic animals as in the opinion of the court it is expedient to retain for the purpose of reducing the expense or increasing the income of the family or of real estate not used as a home; or of real estate, when used as a home; of a value disproportionate to the actual needs of the family, shall be a bar to any allowance under this act, provided, further, that in lieu of all real estate and personal property except appropriate clothing and household furniture the possession of no more than five hundred dollars by a mother, grandmother, or other person, shall not be a bar to an allowance, if all but one hundred dollars thereof shall be deposited in trust with a proper depository to be designated by the court, the income therefrom to be used in lieu of an equivalent amount of the allowance ordered by the court, the principal to be returned to the mother, or other person, upon the discontinuance of the allowance.”
