

Section 1. Certain bonds legalized.—All bonds heretofore or hereafter issued by a city of the first class with a population of 50,000 or more inhabitants, including cities of the first class operating under home-rule charters adopted pursuant to Section 36, Article 4 of the State Constitution, which have been heretofore authorized to be issued by a vote of a majority of the electors of such city voting upon a proposition providing for the issuance of an aggregate amount of bonds for two or more distinct improvements, with a definite amount provided therein for each improvement, are hereby legalized and declared to be the legal obligations of such city, provided, however, that no bonds shall hereafter be issued under the authority of said election, in excess of the limitation of indebtedness of said city which is now or which may hereafter be prescribed by law.

Sec. 2. Bonds to be issued and sold as provided by law.—Any bonds issued and sold by any city under and pursuant to this act shall be issued and sold in the manner prescribed by law.

Sec. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 30, 1929.

CHAPTER 113—H. F. No. 179

An act to amend Section 9172, General Statutes 1923, relating to right of parent or guardian to sue for injury to child or ward, in civil cases.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota :

Section 1. Parent or guardian may sue for injury to child or ward—Bond—Settlement.—That Section 9172, General Statutes 1923, be amended to read as follows :

“9172. A father, or, in case of his death or desertion of his family, the mother, may maintain an action for the injury of a minor child, and a general guardian may maintain an action for the injury of his ward. Provided, that if no such action is brought by the father or mother, an action for such injury may be maintained by a guardian ad litem, either before or after the death of such parent. Before any such parent shall receive any money or other property in settlement or compromise of any action so brought, or in satisfaction of any judgment obtained therein, such parent shall file a bond as security therefor, in such form and with such sureties as the court shall prescribe and approve; Provided, however, that upon petition of such parent, the court may, in its discretion, order that in lieu of such bond, any money so received shall be deposited as a savings account in a banking institution or trust company, together, with a copy of the court's order and the deposit book filed with the Clerk of Court, subject to the order of the court, and no settlement or compromise of any such action shall be valid unless the same shall be approved by a judge of the court in which such action is pending."

Approved March 30, 1929.

CHAPTER 114—H. F. No. 389

An act authorizing counties to appropriate money in certain cases to pay bonds issued by villages for the construction of bridges.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section. 1 Counties may pay bonds in certain cases.—That where a village has heretofore issued and sold, or shall hereafter issue and sell, its bonds to defray the cost of constructing a bridge across a river constituting at such place the boundary line between this state and another state, and the highway of which the portion of said bridge within this state is a part has been or shall be, after the issue of such bonds, made a state aid road, the county within which such portion of said bridge is located is hereby authorized to appropriate money from its road and bridge fund, not exceeding the sum of $20,000, to pay said bonds.

Approved March 30, 1929.

CHAPTER 115—H. F. No. 425

An act limiting the annual tax levy for the county road and bridge fund, not including interest and redemption charges on all county road and bridge bonds outstanding, to two and three-fifths mills on the dollar of the taxable valuation in counties in this state now or hereafter having property of an assessed valuation of not less than $175,000,000, exclusive of moneys and credits, and having 96% or more of the assessed valuation of all property for taxation purposes, exclusive of moneys and credits, in said counties now or hereafter located within the limits of incorporated cities.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:
