CHAPTER 136—S. F. No. 303

An act authorizing the renewal of the period of corporate existence of any Co-operative Creamery Association whose period of duration has expired less than ten years prior to the passage hereof without renewal.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Corporate existence of co-operative creameries renewed in certain cases.—Any co-operative creamery association organized prior to the year 1906 and whose period of duration has expired less than ten years before the passage of this act and which has continued to carry on its business without a renewal of its said period, may renew the period of its corporate existence from the date of expiration of said period of duration for an additional term not exceeding twenty years from date of such expiration, with the same force and effect as if such renewal had been effected before its said period of duration expired.

Sec. 2. Meeting and resolution.—Any such association desiring to so renew its corporate existence shall adopt a resolution to that effect by a majority vote of the stock represented at a meeting of the stockholders of such association, held for the purpose of acting on such renewal. Notice of such meeting shall be given by the secretary of such association, which notice shall state the object and purposes of the meeting, and shall be published not less than fifteen days nor more than thirty days prior to the date of such meeting in a newspaper published in the municipality in which is located the principal place of business of such association, if such newspaper there be, and if not, then in a newspaper published at the county seat of the county in which such principal place of business is located. At such meeting stockholders may vote in person or by proxy, and a quorum necessary to transact business shall be the representatives, present and voting, of at least thirty per cent of the issued and outstanding stock of said association, when such issued and outstanding stock does not exceed 200 shares, and when such issued and outstanding stock exceeds 200 shares, the quorum at such meeting necessary to transact business shall be not less than twenty per cent of the issued and outstanding stock of said association.

Sec. 3. Record of certificate.—Upon the adoption of a resolution as hereinbefore provided, the proper officers of said association shall cause to be filed for record in the office of the register of deeds of the county in which the principal place of business of said association is located, a certificate setting forth the facts with regard to the adoption of said resolution, and thereupon said proceedings shall relate back to the date of the expiration of the original corporate period of said association, and shall have the force and effect of a renewal of the corporate existence of said association for the period of twenty years from the date of the expiration of said original corporate period, and any and all corporate acts and contracts of such association done or entered into after the expiration of said original period shall be, and each hereby is, declared to be legal and valid. Provided, however, that the proceedings to so renew the corporate existence of said association shall be taken within six months after the passage of this act.

Sec. 4. Associations excepted.—This act shall not apply to any co-operative creamery association the charter of which has been declared forfeited by the final judgment of any court of competent jurisdiction in this state, nor to any action or proceeding now pending in any of the courts of this state.

Sec. 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 5, 1929.
