CHAPTER 195—S. F. No. 725

An act extending the right of redemption from mortgage and execution sales to the creditors of a decedent debtor.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Creditor may redeem in certain cases.—That any creditor whose claim shall have been proved and allowed by a probate court of this state against the estate of a deceased debtor shall have the right, as a creditor of such decedent, to redeem the lands of the decedent from a sale thereof upon the foreclosure of a mortgage, or upon an execution, in the order and in the manner herein provided.

Sec. 2. Creditor to file order with register of deeds.—For the purpose of such redemption a creditor whose claim against the estate of a decedent shall have been so allowed shall file for record in the office of the register of deeds of the county in which the real estate sought to be redeemed is situated, within the year of redemption, a certified copy of the order of the probate court allowing such claim, and thereupon such claim shall constitute a lien upon the unexempt real estate of the decedent sold upon foreclosure or execution. The creditor shall also within such time file a notice in the office of such register of deeds briefly describing the sale of the decedent's lands, a description of the lands sold, and stating, in a general way, the nature, date and amount of the claim of the creditor, and that he intends to redeem such lands from the sale thereof described in such notice.
