

his office for the remainder of his said term, or, if then past sixty-eight years of age, having served as a judge of the district court and as a justice or commissioner of the Supreme Court, or in any one or more of such capacities for more than twenty-three years, or if then past seventy-five years of age, having served as a judge of the district court for ten or more years and having served as member of Congress, and county attorney, or in any one or more of such capacities, an additional ten or more years, he shall receive one-half of the compensation allotted to his office at the time of such retirement for the remainder of his life, to be paid at the time, and the manner provided by law.

Approved April 16, 1929.

CHAPTER 202—H. F. No. 479

An act relating to certain aid societies.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Societies not subject to insurance law.—That any aid society confining its membership to one religious denomination, not operating for profit, and not charging stipulated premiums, which has been so operating in this state for more than 30 years and which pays death benefits not exceeding $1,000.00 in any one case, shall not be subject to the insurance laws of this state.

Approved April 16, 1929.

CHAPTER 203—S. F. No. 635

An act relating to the minimum punishment for larceny of domestic animals or fowl.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota: