

forests, and which shall be designated by the executive council, upon the recommendation of the commissioner of conservation, for disposal to the United States for such purpose, and at such sale said lands shall be purchased for the state by the commissioner of conservation at a price not exceeding a maximum fixed by the executive council.

Sec. 2. State may exchange land.—The executive council is hereby authorized and empowered to exchange any or all of the lands which may be acquired by the state by purchase as aforesaid for lands of the United States of the same general character and of substantially the same value as in its judgment will promote the best interests of the state, upon such terms and conditions as it shall deem proper, and to that end may accept or pay out of any available funds such cash differences as will affect an equitable exchange of lands. The said council is hereby authorized to cause any lands so acquired to be appraised by such competent authority as it shall appoint or direct.

Sec. 3. Governor to execute conveyances.—For the purpose of carrying out the objects of this act, the governor is hereby authorized and empowered to execute proper instruments of conveyance in the name and under the seal of the state.

Sec. 4. Appropriation.—There is hereby appropriated out of any moneys in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of $10,000 to carry out the provisions of this act.

Approved April 19, 1929.
