CHAPTER 289—H. F. No. 373

An act making it unlawful for an attorney-at-law to employ any person who is not an attorney to solicit claims for personal injuries or for death, prohibiting any person not an attorney-at-law from soliciting such claims, limiting the use of written statements taken from an injured person, and providing penalties therefor.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota :

Section 1. Attorneys shall not employ solicitors.—No attorney-at-law shall, through any runner, agent or person not an attorney-at-law who is employed by him, solicit a person to employ such attorney to present a claim for damages for personal injuries or for death, or to prosecute an action to enforce such a claim, and no attorney-at-law shall directly or indirectly give or promise to any such person other than an attorney-at-law any money, fee or commission in consideration of the employment of such attorney by a person having a claim for personal injuries or for death, or soliciting or procuring such person who has such claim to employ such attorney to present such claim or to prosecute an action for the enforcement thereof.

Sec. 2. Soliciting of business by persons other than attorneys unlawful.—It shall be unlawful for any person not an attorney-at-law to solicit for money, fee or commission, in any manner whatsoever, any demand or claim for personal injuries or for death for the purpose of having an action brought thereon for the purpose of settling the same. Nothing in this act shall be construed to prevent any bona fide labor organization or any member thereof from advising or securing advice for any member of such organization in regard to his rights.

Sec. 3. Violation a misdemeanor.—(a) Any attorney-at-law who shall violate Section 1 hereof shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not less than $50, nor more than $100, or imprisonment in the county jail for not more than 90 days.

(b) Any person who shall violate Section 2 hereof shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not less than $50, nor more than $100, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not to exceed 90 days.

Sec. 4. Certain statements shall be presumed to be fraudulent.—(a) Any statement secured from an injured person at any time within 30 days after such injuries were sustained shall be presumably fraudulent for use in the trial of any action for damages for injuries sustained by such person or for the death of such person.

Sec. 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after December 31, 1929.

Approved April 23, 1929.
