CHAPTER 354—H. F. No. 327

An act providing for the acquisition of certain land by the University of Minnesota; the construction of buildings at the University in accordance with a comprehensive building plan; and to provide for the levying of taxes therefor and to provide for the issuance and sale of certificates of indebtedness to provide funds in anticipation of the collection of such taxes; for the creation of a university building fund and the appropriation of money therefrom and for the purposes of this act.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Tax levy for university building fund.—To provide the necessary funds for acquiring land and erecting buildings in accordance with a comprehensive building plan for the University of Minnesota, there is hereby levied on the taxable property of the state for the year 1929 and each of the succeeding nine years, a tax sufficient to produce three hundred thousand dollars for each of said years and the state auditor is hereby directed to levy and collect such tax with and as other taxes for state purposes are levied and collected. The proceeds of such taxes shall be credited to a fund to be known as the "University Building Fund" and the moneys which shall from time to time be paid into said fund are hereby appropriated to the University of Minnesota for the purposes above specified, and for the payment of any certificates of indebtedness issued and
