

CHAPTER 283—S. F. No. 758

An act relating to the state forests, and providing for setting apart therefor certain public lands of the state which have reverted to the state after a previous sale thereof.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Certain state lands to become state forest.—Whenever the Commissioner of Forestry and Fire Prevention shall determine that any tract of public land of the state which shall have reverted to the state on account of default after sale theretofore made to an individual purchaser, and which, after being re-offered for sale, remains unsold, is suitable and is required for use as a forestry administrative station, demonstration forest, or for any other forestry purpose, and which has heretofore been put to such use, all in designated state forests, and shall so certify to the State Auditor, it shall be the duty of the Auditor forthwith to certify such tract upon his records as state forest land. Thereupon any and all right of the prior purchaser of such tract to redeem the same shall be terminated and extinguished and such tract shall become and be a part of the state forests, subject to all the provisions of law relating thereto.

Sec. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 21, 1931.
