

CHAPTER 298—H. F. No. 868

An act relating to wild animals and to the protection and taking thereof in interstate boundary waters, amending Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, Sections 5645 and 5647.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Common boundary waters.—That Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, Section 5645, be and the same hereby is amended so as to read as follows:

"5645. The taking of wild animals of any kind, including game birds, quadrupeds, and in any manner in or upon any of the waters which form a common boundary between Minnesota and any other state of the United States, contrary to the laws of such state, is hereby prohibited, provided, the commission may license or otherwise provide for the taking or removal of rough or non-game fish in said waters as otherwise authorized by law."

Sec. 2. Reciprocity in licenses.—That Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, Section 5647, be and the same hereby is amended so as to read as follows:

"5647. Whenever, so long as, and in so far as the state of South Dakota, confers upon the licensees of this state reciprocal rights, privileges, and immunities, any license to take water fowl, any license to take fish by angling or spearing, and any commercial fishing or clamming license issued by such state shall entitle the licensee to all the rights, privileges, and immunities in and upon the waters of Big Stone Lake and this state, enjoyed by the holders of equivalent licenses issued by this state; subject, however, to the duties, responsibilities, and liabilities imposed on its own licensees by the laws of this state."

Approved April 21, 1931.
