

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Structures, etc., not to be removed.—That Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, Section 2203, be amended to read as follows:

"2203. No structures, standing timber, or minerals on which a lien for taxes has attached shall be removed from any tract of land until all the taxes assessed against such tract and due and payable shall have been fully paid and discharged. When the state auditor or the county auditor has reason to believe that any such structure, timber, or minerals will be removed from such tract before such taxes shall have been paid, either may direct the county attorney to bring suit in the name of the state to enjoin any and all persons from removing such structure, timber, or minerals therefrom until such taxes are paid. No bond shall be required of plaintiff in such suit."

Sec. 2. Structures, etc., may be seized.—That Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, Section 2204, be amended to read as follows:

"2204. Any structure, timber, or minerals removed from any tract of land subject to a lien for taxes as provided in this chapter, or so much thereof as may be necessary, may be seized by the state auditor, or by the county auditor, or by any person authorized by either of them in writing, and sold in the manner provided for the sale of personal property in satisfaction of taxes. All moneys received from such sale in excess of the amount necessary to satisfy such taxes and the costs and expenses of seizure and sale shall be returned to the owner of such structure, timber, or minerals, if known, and, if unknown, shall be deposited in the county treasury subject to the right of the owner."

Approved April 24, 1931.

CHAPTER 335—H. F. No. 1487

An act to extend the time for closing the affairs and disposing of the property of certain corporations whose existence has been terminated by the expiration of their period of duration for more than three years, not including, however, corporations having power of eminent domain.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Period for closing corporation extended.—Where any corporation, other than a corporation having the power of eminent domain, whose existence has been terminated by the expiration of its period of duration as fixed by its charter, did not fully close its affairs and convey all its property within the period of three years succeeding the date of such termination, and where any such corporation has or claims or appears to have or claim any interest in or to any property, the time so limited by law for so closing its affairs and disposing of its property is hereby extended for two years from and after the passage of this Act, for the purpose of permitting any such corporation to close up its affairs and dispose of its property, and said extension hereby made shall also apply for the purpose of authorizing and permitting service of process in actions at law or in equity, and in order that any such corporation may prosecute and defend actions and be served with process therein.
