

members of said commission shall serve without compensation, but shall be reimbursed for all expenses actually and necessarily incurred in the performance of their duties.

Sec. 2. Powers and duties.—Said commission is hereby empowered and directed to make all necessary and proper arrangements with the executive officers of the Century of Progress Exposition for participation by the State in the exposition to be held at Chicago, Illinois, in 1933, and to provide such exhibits as will, in its judgment, best depict and exemplify the progress of the state and its people in the fields of agriculture, recreation, game conservation, forestry, industry, commerce, finance, education, science, and the arts. The commission is hereby given full charge, control and supervision of the state's participation in such exposition, and to that end is empowered to do any and all things necessary and convenient, and may employ such clerical and other help as in its judgment may be necessary, and fix the compensation of such employes. The several state officers, departments and agencies are hereby directed to co-operate with said commission and to render such aid and assistance as may be required thereby.

Sec. 3. Appropriations.—There is hereby appropriated, out of any moneys in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of $50,000 to defray the expenses of the members of said commission and the cost and expenses of carrying out the purposes of this act. All claims or charges shall be audited and approved by the commission and certified to the state auditor by the chairman and secretary for payment, and shall be paid by warrant of the auditor in the manner of the payment of other claims against the state.

CHAPTER 417—S. F. No. 342

An act proposing an amendment to article 8 of the constitution of the state of Minnesota, to authorize the exchange of public lands of the state for lands of the United States as the legislature may provide.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Proposed amendment for exchange of public lands.—That the following amendment to Article 8 of the constitution of the State of Minnesota is hereby proposed to legal voters of this state for their approval or their rejection, which amendment when so approved shall constitute a new section and be known as Section 8, of said Article 8, and shall read as follows:

“Section 8. Any of the public lands of the state, including lands held in trust for any purpose, may, with the approval of a commission consisting of the governor, the attorney general and the state auditor, be exchanged for lands of the United States as the legislature may provide, and the lands so acquired shall be subject to the trust, if any, to which the lands exchanged therefor were subject, and the state shall reserve all mineral and water and water power rights in lands so transferred by the state.”
