CHAPTER 51—H. F. No. 386

An act amending Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, Section 183, relating to the division of the business of the court between the judges thereof in districts having more than one judge.
Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Several judges — division of business.—That Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, Section 183, be and the same hereby is amended to read as follows:

"183. In districts having more than one judge, the one longest in continuous service, or, if two or more be equal in such service, the one senior in age, shall be the presiding judge thereof. The business of the court may be divided between the judges, and otherwise regulated as they by rule or order shall direct. Each may try court or jury causes separately during the same term and at the same time, or two or more of them may sit together in the trial of any cause or matter before the court. If there be a division of opinion, that of the majority shall prevail. If the division be equal, that of the presiding judge, or, if he be not sitting, that of the judge senior in age, shall prevail. In districts composed of not less than ten counties, the senior judge, at least 30 days before the time appointed by law for the holding of a general term of the court in each county, by order filed in the office of the clerk of the court in that county, shall designate and assign one or more of the judges of such district to preside at the term so appointed, and the clerk forthwith shall mail a copy of such order to each judge of the district. If any judge assigned to hold a term of court as herein provided is incapacitated by illness or otherwise to preside at such term, another judge shall be designated and assigned in like manner to take his place. The same judge shall not be designated or assigned to hold two consecutive general terms in the same county."

Approved March 9, 1931.
