

in such form as shall be approved by the commissioner of banks, conditioned for the faithful performance of all the duties of his or their trust, and thereupon the commissioner of banks shall transfer and deliver to such agent or agents all the undivided or uncollected or other assets of such corporation then remaining in his hands, and upon such transfer and delivery, the said commissioner of banks, shall be discharged from any and all further liability to such bank and its creditors. Such agent or agents shall convert the assets coming into his or their possession into cash and shall account for and make distribution of the property of such bank as is herein provided in the case of distribution by the commissioner of banks, except that the expenses thereof shall be subject to the direction and control of the said district court. In case of the death, removal or refusal to act of any such agent or agents, the stockholders, on the same notice as that after which they were elected and in the same way, may elect a successor who shall have the same powers and be subject to the same liabilities and duties as the agent originally elected.

Dividends on deposits and other claims unclaimed up to the time of the application of the Commissioner of Banks for authority to pay a final dividend shall in just proportion be paid to other depositors and creditors who have duly filed their claims and who are entitled to participate in such final dividend. Final dividends unclaimed shall after the expiration of one year from the date of the court order authorizing the payment of the final dividend be paid to the State Treasurer and by him credited to the general revenue fund." Section 2. All acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

Approved April 8, 1933.
