CHAPTER 174—S. F. No. 705

An act amending Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, Section 739, relating to appropriations for certain agricultural developments in certain counties.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Appropriations for certain agricultural developments.—That Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, Section 739, be amended to read as follows:

"739. The board of county commissioners of any county in this state having less than 225,000 inhabitants, may appropriate annually out of the general revenue fund of such county, a sum of money not exceeding a sum equal to five cents per capita of the population of such county according to the last census, either federal or state, of such county. Such sum so appropriated shall be paid to any incorporated development society or organization of this state which in the opinion of the board of county commissioners will use such money for the best interests of such county in advertising, improving or developing the agricultural resources of such county, and such other matter as may tend to a development of the county; provided that in any such county having an assessed valuation of over two hundred million, ($200,000,000) dollars, the county board of said county may appropriate a sum not exceeding a sum equal to ten cents per capita of the population of such county for the carrying on of said work in said county."

Approved April 8, 1933.
