

CHAPTER 176—H. F. No. 763

An act authorizing the establishment and maintenance of portable circulating libraries in certain villages and towns and legalizing payments heretofore made.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Certain villages and towns to establish portable and circulating libraries.—The Board of Supervisors of any organized town containing 5 or more government townships, and having a total population including villages therein which are not separated from the town for election and assessment purposes, of 15,000 inhabitants, may establish and maintain a portable circulating library for the education, benefit and welfare of the people of such town.

For this purpose the board may purchase and equip a motor vehicle and may furnish a driver, a librarian, and such further clerical assistance as it shall deem reasonably necessary for the maintenance of such library, and the library board of such village is hereby authorized to cooperate with the town in the maintenance thereof, and to loan books and periodicals to the town on such terms as it shall prescribe.

All expenditures made for the purpose of this Act shall be within and not above the limitations now prescribed by law for the general fund of such town.

Sec. 2. Expenditures legalized.—Expenditures heretofore made by the town board of any such town for the purposes authorized by this Act are hereby validated and legalized.

✓ Approved April 8, 1933.

CHAPTER 177—H. F. No. 830

An act relating to firemen's relief associations in cities of the first class, and repealing inconsistent acts.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Firemens relief associations in cities of first class established.—The fire departments of each city of the first class in this state shall maintain a firemen's relief association which shall be duly incorporated under the laws of the State of Minnesota.
