CHAPTER 282—H. F. No. 1759

An act to legalize and validate county warrants which have been heretofore issued and are outstanding by any county in this state having an assessed valuation including moneys and credits of not more than $1,300,000 and not less than $1,000,000, and having a population according to the last federal census of not more than 2,600 nor less than 2,300; and authorizing any county board of any such county to transfer funds from any county fund to any other county fund, not exceeding $5,000 in any one year, on certain conditions, and legalizing any such transfers previously made.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Certain county warrants validated.—That all warrants issued since January 1, 1931, and now outstanding by any county in this state having an assessed valuation including moneys and credits of not more than $1,300,000 and not less than $1,000,000 and having a population of not more than 2600 nor less than 2300, are hereby legalized and validated against any and all of the following defects:

(a) That such warrant or warrants were issued in excess of the statutory limitation.

(b) That such warrant or warrants were issued against the improper fund.

Sec. 2. Not to affect pending actions.—Nothing in this Act shall affect any proceeding now pending in any court of record relative to the validity or legality of such warrants.

Sec. 3. County board may transfer funds in certain cases.—That the county board of any such county is hereby authorized to transfer funds from any fund to any other county fund in any calendar year, and to re-transfer any such funds back to the fund from which originally transferred, whenever sufficient funds are available for such purpose; not exceeding $5,000. in amount in any one year, but subject to the right of the holder or holders of any warrant or orders drawn upon any such fund from which such transfer of funds shall be proposed to be made to object thereto by written notice filed with the County Auditor of any such county. That upon the filing of such written notice with such county auditor so objecting to any such transfer of funds, the county board shall have no authority to proceed further with the transfer of any such funds.

Sec. 4. Transfers validated.—That any such transfers of funds heretofore made by any such county board from any fund to any other fund is hereby declared to be, in all respects, legal and valid.

Approved April 15, 1933.

CHAPTER 283—H. F. No. 1829

An act to amend Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, Section 5704, relating to revocation and reinstatement of certificates for certified public accountants.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Revocation and reinstatement of certificates of certified public accountants.—Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, Section 5704 is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

5704. Said state board of accountancy may revoke any certificate issued under this Act or may cancel the registration of any certificate issued under this Act for bad moral character, dishonesty, conviction of crime, incompetency or unprofessional conduct; provided, a written notice shall have been mailed to the holder of such certificate at least twenty days before any hearing thereon, stating the cause for such contemplated action and appointing a time and place for a hearing thereon by the state board of accountancy, and further provided, that no certificate issued under this Act shall be revoked until an opportunity for such hearing shall have been afforded. At all such hearings, the attorney general of this state, or one of his assistants designated by him, shall attend. Certificates issued or registered under this Act shall be surrendered to the state board of accountancy on their revocation by said board.

Said state board of accountancy may reinstate a revoked certificate upon a petition for reinstatement by the former holder there-
