

valuation in excess of $10,000,000 and a population of less than 9,000 inhabitants, may appropriate out of any money available, during the calendar year 1933 and thereafter, for the support of poor persons of the city, an amount not exceeding $20,000 annually.

Sec. 2. Tax levy.—That in every such city at the time of making the annual tax levy in the year 1933 and annually thereafter, the governing body of any such city may include therein a tax of one mill on all taxable property in such city, not exceeding $20,000 for each year, however, for use by the city in giving relief to poor persons having a settlement in such city, but such levy shall be within the limitations now provided by law and shall not authorize any levy in addition to the per capita or any millage limitation; provided that no money shall be paid to any such poor person.

Sec. 3. Application of act.—This Act shall not relieve any relative from liability now imposed by law for the support of any poor person having a settlement in any such city.

Approved April 17, 1933.
