

shall be individually liable to the town or to any other person for any damages caused thereby and for the purpose of enforcing such liability without impairing any other remedy, one-fourth of the salary of each such officer and employee shall be withheld from him and applied towards reimbursing the town or any such other person for such damages until all claims by reason thereof have been fully paid. Every member of the town board present at a meeting of the board when any action is taken with reference to paying money or incurring indebtedness or entering into any contract shall be deemed to have participated in and authorized the same, unless he shall have caused his dissent therefrom to be entered upon the minutes of the meeting.

Sec. 9. Officers may be suspended from office for violation of act.—Any member of the town board knowingly participating in or authorizing the violation of this Act shall be liable to suspension from office. Any vacancy created thereby shall be filled according to law.

Sec. 10. Shall continue under provisions of act.—When a town has once come under the provisions of this Act, it shall continue under its provisions notwithstanding any subsequent change in assessed valuation or population.

Sec. 11. Provisions separable.—If any section, part or provision hereof be found unconstitutional, such determination shall not affect the validity of the remaining provisions not clearly dependent thereon, provided that the funding of the indebtedness existing on January 1, 1933, is necessary to the functioning of this law and if any town shall find it impossible to sell the bonds herein provided for the purpose of funding such indebtedness prior to January 1, 1934, or if the voters of such town should refuse to authorize the issuance of such bonds, this act shall not take effect therein.

Sec. 12. This Act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage, except as herein otherwise provided, and all Acts and parts of Acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed and declared of no effect insofar as they may be inconsistent with this Act.

Approved April 17, 1933.
