

shall be approved by the Commissioner of Banks conditioned for the faithful performance of all duties of its trust.

(c) Upon filing of such certificate with the Register of Deeds, the credit union shall be deemed dissolved and its corporate existence terminated except for the purpose of discharging its debts, collecting and distributing its assets and doing all other acts required in order to liquidate. The credit union shall have a corporate existence and may sue and be sued.

(d) If the credit union shall not be completely liquidated and its assets discharged within three years after such special meeting of the members, the Commissioner of Banks shall take possession of the books, records and assets and proceed to complete the liquidation in the manner then provided by law for the liquidation of closed banks.

(e) Funds representing unclaimed dividends in liquidation in the hands of such liquidating committee or the Commissioner of Banks for six months after date of final dividend, shall be deposited with the State Treasurer who shall within one year thereafter pay over the money so held by him to the persons respectively entitled thereto upon being furnished satisfactory evidence of their right to the same, and at the end of such year the State Treasurer shall credit all residue of such deposit to the General Revenue Fund.

(f) Upon completion of the liquidation by such liquidating committee it shall file with the Commissioner of Banks a verified statement in writing signed by the members of such committee stating that all debts of the credit union, including deposits, have been paid except unclaimed dividends, and if any such, the amount thereof, the names of the persons entitled thereto with their last known addresses, and all books and papers of the credit union shall thereupon be deposited with the Commissioner of Banks."

Approved April 20, 1933.

CHAPTER 348—S. F. No. 52

An act to amend Sections 1 and 2 of Chapter 47, Laws of Minnesota for 1929 as amended by Chapter 72, Laws of Minnesota for 1931 and as amended by Chapter 138, Laws of Minnesota for 1931, relating to old age pensions, so as to make the provisions of said Chapter 47, Laws of Minnesota for 1929 as amended by Chapter 72, Laws of 1931 and as amended by Chapter 138, Laws of Minnesota for 1931, statewide and compulsory upon the counties.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Old age pensions established.—That Section 1 of Chapter 47, Laws of Minnesota for 1929, be amended to read as follows:

“Section 1. There is hereby established in each county in this state a system of old age pensions. Provided that whenever this act shall have been in force for more than one year in any county, the county board shall upon a petition signed by at least 25 per cent of the voters therein, according to the last general election, adopt a resolution submitting the question of continuing such old age pension in said county to the voters at the next general election thereafter; if a majority of the voters voting upon such proposition shall vote in favor thereof, said old age pension shall be continued in effect in said county, but if a majority of the voters voting upon
