CHAPTER 421—H. F. No. 1412

An act to amend Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, Section 3659, as amended by Laws 1931, Chapter 269, relating to township mutual fire insurance companies.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Sec. 1. What may be insured.—That Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, Section 3659, as amended by Laws 1931, Chapter 269, be and the same hereby is amended to read as follows:

3659. No township mutual fire insurance company heretofore organized and no company organized pursuant to this Act shall insure any property outside of the limits of the town or towns in which such company is authorized by its certificate or articles of incorporation to transact business, except personal property temporarily outside of such authorized territory and, except as herein-after further provided; nor shall any township mutual fire insurance company insure any property other than dwellings and their contents, farm buildings and their contents, livestock, farm machinery, automobiles, country store buildings, and the household goods therein, threshing machines, farm produce anywhere on the premises, churches, and their contents, school houses, and their contents, society and town halls, and their contents, country blacksmith shops and their contents, parsonages and their contents, and the barns and contents used in connection therewith, buttermaker's dwelling houses and contents, and barns and contents used in connection therewith, and dwellings together with the usual outbuildings and the usual contents of both said dwellings and outbuildings in any village of 1000 or less inhabitants, when at a duly called special or annual meeting of the policy holders it shall be duly decided by them, by a majority vote, to do so.

Otherwise than as hereinbefore provided, no such company shall insure any property within the limits of any city or village except that located upon lands actually used for farming or gardening purposes, but whenever the dwelling house of any person insured is within the limits of a town where the company is authorized to do business, and the farm on which such dwellings are situated is partly within and partly without such town, it may include in such insurance any outbuildings, farm produce, stock or other farm property on such farm outside of such limits; provided, however, any such company is hereby authorized to insure county fair buildings whether the same are situated either within or without the limits of a duly incorporated village or city.

No law relating to insurance companies now in force in this state shall apply to township mutual fire insurance companies unless it shall be expressly designated in such law that it is applicable to such companies.

Approved April 21, 1933.
