

CHAPTER 47—S. F. No. 288

An act prohibiting any employer or representative of any employer from accepting any consideration for employment given to or secured for any employe, and providing a penalty for violation thereof.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Employers not to accept consideration for securing employment.—Any employer, or any manager, superintendent, foreman or other representative of any employer, who directly or indirectly demands or accepts from any employe any part of such employe's wages or other consideration, or any gratuity, in consideration of giving to or securing or assisting in securing for any employe any employment with such employer, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Approved March 2, 1933.

CHAPTER 48—S. F. No. 966

An act to amend Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, Section 262, relating to special elections during the Session of the Legislature.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Special elections in certain cases.—That Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, Section 262, be amended to read as follows:

"262. Whenever any vacancy occurs in any office, the filling of which is not otherwise provided for, the governor, within ten days after he is informed of such vacancy, shall issue a proclamation directing a special election to be held at a time therein specified not more than twenty days from the date of such proclamation, to fill such office. One copy of such proclamation shall be mailed to the auditor of each county wherein such special election is to be held. But if the vacancy occurs in the office of representative in congress, or members of the legislature, and there be no session of the congress or legislature between the happening thereof and the next general election, or in case of vacancy in the state legislature such vacancy occurs during a session of the legislature at such a time that a special election cannot be held until more than one-half of the legislative days of such session have elapsed, such special election may be held as hereinbefore provided, and if not so held, shall be held on the next general election day. Such special
