CHAPTER 63—S. F. No. 462

An act to amend Mason's Minnesota Statutes 1927, Section 4106, relating to prohibited employments and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Certain employments forbidden—penalties.—That Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, Section 4106, be and the same hereby is amended so as to read as follows:

"Section 4106. No boy under sixteen years of age and no girl under eighteen years of age shall engage in or carry on or be employed or permitted or suffered to be employed in any city of the first, second or third class in the occupation of peddling, bootblack-ing or distributing or selling newspapers, magazines, periodicals or circulars upon the streets or in public places; provided, however, that any boy between fourteen and sixteen years of age, upon application to the school authorities as in the case of application for an employment certificate, and upon compliance with all the requirements for the issuance of an employment certificate, shall receive a permit and badge from the officer authorized to issue employment certificates which shall authorize the recipient to engage in said occupations between the hours of five o'clock A. M., and eight o'clock P. M., of each day, but at no other time, except as provided in Section 3 hereof; and, providing further, that any boy between twelve and sixteen years of age, upon application as provided in the preceding section and upon due proof of age and physical fitness in the manner provided by law for the issuance of employment certificates, may receive a permit and a badge from the officer authorized to issue employment certificates which shall authorize the recipient to engage in said occupations during those hours between five o'clock A. M. and eight o'clock P. M., when the public schools of the city where such boy resides are not in session; but at no other time except as provided in Section 3 hereof.

Any person who knowingly and wilfully employs or permits or suffers to be employed any child in violation of this section, or any person who knowingly and wilfully aids or abets any child to violate the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor."

Approved March 7, 1933.

CHAPTER 64—S. F. No. 35

An act to provide for the continuation of Civil Service Commissions established under Chapter 57 of the Laws of 1929 and Chapter 299, Laws of 1929, where such commissions have been adopted in villages having a population of 5,000 inhabitants or more and having an assessed valuation of $8,000,000.00 exclusive of money or credits when such village or villages may now or hereafter adopt home rule charters or become incorporated as cities of the second, third, or fourth class.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Civil service commissions continued.—Whenever a board or boards of civil service commissioners have been established for police or fire departments, under and pursuant to Chapter 57, Laws of 1929, and Chapter 299, Laws of 1929, and the acts amendatory thereof, in any village having a population of 5,000 inhabitants or more and having an assessed valuation of $8,000,000.00 or more, exclusive of money or credits, such board or boards are hereby authorized and empowered to continue to act in carrying out the duties and terms of office, under and pursuant to such laws and adoption of said commission by the governing bodies of such villages, where such village or villages and adjacent territory, whether incorporated or unincorporated may now or hereafter become incorporated as a city of the second, third, or fourth class, or adopt the provision of a Home Rule Charter.

Sec. 2. Policeman and Fireman Civil service continued.—Any policeman's civil service commission or a fireman's civil service commission, which has been or which shall hereafter be duly established in the manner prescribed by law, by the governing body of any village coming within the classification as set forth in Section 1 of this act, shall continue uninterruptedly in the same manner as heretofore provided by said Chapter 57 of the Laws of 1929, and Chapter 299, Laws of 1929, and the acts amendatory thereof, when any such village adopts the provisions of a Home Rule Charter, or becomes incorporated as a city of the second, third, or fourth class.
