

CHAPTER 95—S. F. No. 513

An act relating to the powers of City Councils in cities of the fourth class operating under a home rule charter to vacate certain streets or highways in any such city.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota :

Section 1. City Council may vacate streets.—That in any city of the fourth class organized under a home rule charter, the council thereof shall have power, by a majority vote of the council to vacate any street or highway or any part of any street or highway therein, upon the petition of all the owners of lands abutting both sides of any such street or highway or part thereof proposed to be vacated wherein one end of any such street or highway or part thereof, proposed to be vacated, does not connect with any other street or highway. Except as herein provided all other provisions of such home rule charter shall apply to and govern any such vacation proceeding.

Sec. 2. Application.—This act shall apply to any proceeding now pending before the city council of any such city wherein the conditions set forth in Section 1 of this act exist.

Sec. 3. Not to affect pending actions.—The provisions of this act shall not affect any action or proceeding now pending in any of the Courts of this State in which the validity of any street vacation by the council of any such city is involved or is in question.

Approved March 20, 1933.

CHAPTER 96—S. F. No. 610

An act authorizing the county board of any county now or hereafter having a population of not less than fifty-five thousand and not more than seventy thousand inhabitants, according to the last federal census, and consisting of not less than thirty-five nor more than forty-five congressional townships, to fix the salaries of the county auditor, county treasurer, judge of probate, register of deeds, clerk of the district court, county attorney, superintendent of schools and sheriff of such county, and relating to the disposition of the fees of such offices.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota :

Section 1. County Board to fix salaries of county officers in certain counties.—That the county board of any county now or hereafter having a population of not less than fifty-five thousand nor more than seventy thousand inhabitants, according to the last
