CHAPTER 107—H. F. No. 155.

An act relating to the detachment of lands from a school district and attaching the same to adjoining district upon petition of freeholder or school board.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Detachment of land from school district.—In any county in this state having a population of not less than 26,500 nor more than 28,000 inhabitants, and an assessed valuation for taxation purposes of not less than 9 million nor more than 14 million dollars, and having not less than 27, nor more than 29 full and fractional congressional townships, any freeholder of a tract of land and residing thereon which is more than three miles distant by the nearest travelled road from the schoolhouse in said district, and which tract of land is separated in whole or in part from the remainder of the district by a lake or other natural barrier, or the school board of the district in which said land is situated, may petition the board of county commissioners requesting that said land be detached from the school district in which the same is situated and attached to the contiguous district. Such petition shall set forth the name and kind of district involved, a description of the land in question, the name of the owner thereof, and the reason for such request.

Sec. 2. Petition—hearing.—The board of county commissioners upon receipt of such petition shall give notice of hearing thereon as in other cases, and upon proof of the allegations contained in such petition shall make an order granting the same; and like notice of such change of boundaries of such district shall be given as in other cases.

Approved April 5, 1935.

CHAPTER 108—H. F. No. 162.

An act to amend Mason's Minnesota Statutes 1927, Section 10076, defining manslaughter in the first degree.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Manslaughter in first degree defined.—Mason's Minnesota Statutes 1927, Section 10076, is amended to read as follows:

"10076. Every person who shall wilfully kill an unborn quick child by an injury inflicted upon the person of its mother, and every person who shall provide, supply, or administer to a woman, whether pregnant or not, or who shall prescribe for, advise, or procure a woman to take any medicine, drug, or substance, or who shall use or employ, or cause to be used or employed, any instrument or other means, with intent thereby to procure the miscarriage of a woman, unless the same is necessary to preserve her life, or that of the child with which she is pregnant, and the death of the woman, or that of any quick child of which she is pregnant, is thereby produced, shall be guilty of manslaughter in the first degree."

Approved April 5, 1935.
