CHAPTER 146—H. F. No. 698.

An act to amend Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, Section 1442-30, relating to the payment of retirement allowances to employees in cities of the State of Minnesota having over 50,000 inhabitants.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Retirement allowances in certain cities.—Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, Section 1442-30, is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

"1442-30. No disability or service allowance shall be granted to any employee who may become eligible for retirement as provided in this act until the said employee, or one authorized to act in his behalf, shall have filed with the retirement board, in such form as may be prescribed by said board, an application for such allowance; no installment or installments of any such allowance shall be paid for any period prior to the effective date of retirement.

The pension board shall be allowed a period of 60 days from and after the filing of the application within which to approve the same and compute the amount of service or disability allowance to which the applicant is entitled. In the event a service or disability allowance is granted the same shall commence with the effective date of the retirement of the person entitled thereto.

All installments of service or disability allowance heretofore paid for any period commencing prior to 60 days subsequent to the filing of the application therefor are hereby fully legalized and validated.

The pension board is hereby authorized and directed to pay any employee who has prior to the passage of this act retired on the service or disability allowance and who has not been paid said allowance for a period of 60 days from and after the filing of his application therefor, a sum or sums equal to an installment of disability or service allowance for said period of 60 days."
