

(4) A high school department shall be a school giving instruction in high school subjects beyond the eight-year elementary course. Such high school department shall employ two or more qualified high school teachers to give instruction in such high school subjects, one of whom may be the superintendent of the high school department and the elementary school associated therewith.

(5) A junior high school shall be a school having a separate organization and employing a principal and two or more teachers giving instruction in the seventh, eighth and ninth years of the twelve-year public school course.

(6) A senior high school shall be a school having a separate organization and employing a principal and two or more high school teachers giving instruction in the tenth, eleventh and twelfth years of the twelve-year public school course. It shall be located in a school district which maintains a junior high school and which employs a superintendent for the entire system of public schools in such school district.

(7) A consolidated school shall be any school located in a school district organized by law as a consolidated school district. Such consolidated schools shall also be classified under one of the six preceding headings of this section.

(8) A six-year high school shall be a school employing a superintendent, a high school principal, and two or more high school teachers giving instruction in years seven to twelve inclusive of the public school course.

Approved April 18, 1935.

CHAPTER 215—S. F. No. 1339

An act to validate certain conveyances heretofore made.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota :

Section 1. Certain deeds validated.—All deeds for the conveyance of real estate made and executed by a husband to wife, or by a wife to husband, during the past six years, where the execution thereof was otherwise valid, and where such instrument has been acknowledged as provided by law, and where such deeds would have been valid under the laws of the state where they were in fact executed, and where the grantors in such deeds are dead, the same are hereby validated and legalized, and such conveyances are hereby made valid as to the extent of the interest described in and conveyed by such instrument.

Sec. 2. Not to affect pending actions.—Nothing herein contained shall affect any action now pending to determine the validity of any instrument validated hereby.

✓ Approved April 18, 1935.

CHAPTER 216—H. F. No. 264

An act to provide for the weighing of livestock at packing plants, slaughtering houses, concentration points and public stockyards, for the supervision and regulation of the weighing, fill, dockage, grading and inspection of livestock at such places; authorizing the railroad and warehouse commission to inspect the books and records, and prescribe the manner and form of the same, of owners and operators of such packing plants, slaughtering houses, concentration points and public stockyards; and for the licensing of buyers of slaughter livestock and regulating the conduct of such buyers and providing penalties for violation thereof.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota :

Section 1. Definitions.—(a) As used herein, the terms “packing plants” and “slaughtering houses” shall mean plants, houses and places of business where livestock purchased or acquired at places within the state of Minnesota are slaughtered.

(b) The term “concentration point” shall mean any stockyards at which livestock is assembled by rail, or by rail and/or other means of transportation, and at which livestock is bought and sold or is assembled for shipment or reshipment to a packing plant or a public stockyards, or graded or weighed for the purpose of establishing a basis for sale or reshipment. A concentration point shall not be considered to be a railroad stockyards owned and operated by a railroad company and used as a railroad shipping facility and which is used by the public only for loading and unloading of livestock shipped by rail. A concentration point shall not be considered to be a stockyard or place where only feeder pigs weighing 50 pounds or less are sold.

(c) The term “buyer” shall mean any person, firm, corporation, or his or its employees, agents and representatives, engaged in buying slaughter livestock direct from producers,