CHAPTER 226—S. F. No. 868

An act to license and regulate poultry flock inspectors; defining the same; and providing for penalties for the violation thereof.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Poultry flock inspectors.—For the purposes of this act, any person who shall cull poultry flocks for production and for standards of perfection or merit shall be deemed to be a poultry flock inspector.

Sec. 2. Must be licensed.—No person shall engage in, or purport to be engaged in, or hold himself out, either for compensation or as agent for a purchaser of poultry, as being a poultry flock inspector, as defined in this act, unless he shall be licensed to act as such by the Minnesota poultry improvement board.

Sec. 3. Qualifications.—Licenses to act as a poultry flock inspector shall be issued by the Minnesota poultry improvement board to such reputable persons as shall apply therefor, pay the prescribed fee and comply with the conditions herein specified to-wit:

- (a) 21 years or more of age;
- (b) A citizen of the United States;
- (c) Of good moral character;
- (d) Shall have passed an examination given by said board;
- (e) Shall have paid a fee of five dollars.

Sec. 4. Applications—Licenses—Fees.—Any person desiring a license as a poultry flock inspector shall file his application to take an examination therefor, together with his license fee of five dollars, with the said board, on such application form as the board shall prescribe.

Sec. 5. Examinations.—The board shall conduct examinations for poultry flock inspectors at least twice a year and at such other times as it deems necessary and advisable. Such examinations shall be in such form as the board shall determine.

Sec. 6. May revoke licenses.—The board shall have the authority to revoke a license after hearing and for cause and upon ten days' written notice of hearing served either personally or by registered mail upon the licensee.

Sec. 7. Renewals.—Every such license shall be renewed on or before December 31st of each year and such renewal shall cost five dollars. If such license is not renewed on or before such date a penalty of two dollars shall attach and if not renewed within three months from such date, the holder of such license may be compelled by the board to take another examination before his license is renewed.

Sec. 8. Fees to general revenue fund.—The fees herein provided for shall be deposited in the general revenue fund.

Sec. 9. Board to make rules.—The board shall have the authority to make reasonable rules and regulations to enforce the provisions of this act.

Sec. 10. Violations a misdemeanor.—Anyone acting as a poultry flock inspector within the meaning of this act without a license therefor, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and it shall be the duty of the county attorney of each county to prosecute all violations of this act within his county.

Sec. 11. Application of act.—The provisions of this act shall not apply to anyone culling his own poultry flocks, or to approved poultry extension specialists or county agricultural agents or home demonstration agents.

Approved April 20, 1935.
