

CHAPTER 257—H. F. No. 1671

An act authorizing the governor of the state of Minnesota to enter into reciprocal agreements with other states for supervision and return of persons on parole or probation.

WHEREAS, The Congress of the United States of America has, by law, given consent to any two or more states to enter into agreements or compacts for cooperative effort and mutual assistance in the prevention of crime and in the enforcement of their respective criminal laws and policies;

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Governor may enter into reciprocal agreement.—The governor of the state of Minnesota is hereby authorized and empowered to enter into compacts and agreements with other states through their duly constituted authorities, in reference to reciprocal supervision of persons on parole or probation and for the reciprocal return of such persons to the contracting states for violation of the terms of their parole or probation.

Approved April 24, 1935.

CHAPTER 258—H. F. No. 1722

An act relating to taxes and assessments and penalties, interest and costs thereon against real estate heretofore paid or assigned for less than the full amount thereof under and pursuant to Laws 1931, Chapter 129, or Laws 1933, Chapter 414, or any other applicable statute, and validating assignments and proceedings thereunder and validating records of certain deeds and other instruments conveying such real estate in certain cases.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Tax payments made under unconstitutional act validated.—In every case where the proper public officials acting under and pursuant to Laws 1931, Chapter 129, or Laws 1933, Chapter 414, or any other applicable statute, have heretofore certified and accepted in full payment and discharge of any taxes and assessments and penalties, interest and costs thereon against any parcel of land or for an assignment thereof, an amount which was less than the full amount of such taxes and assessments and penalties, interest and costs, but not less than the amounts fixed by said laws, the said amount
