

CHAPTER 257—H. F. No. 1671

An act authorizing the governor of the state of Minnesota to enter into reciprocal agreements with other states for supervision and return of persons on parole or probation.

WHEREAS, The Congress of the United States of America has, by law, given consent to any two or more states to enter into agreements or compacts for cooperative effort and mutual assistance in the prevention of crime and in the enforcement of their respective criminal laws and policies;

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Governor may enter into reciprocal agreement.—The governor of the state of Minnesota is hereby authorized and empowered to enter into compacts and agreements with other states through their duly constituted authorities, in reference to reciprocal supervision of persons on parole or probation and for the reciprocal return of such persons to the contracting states for violation of the terms of their parole or probation.

Approved April 24, 1935.

CHAPTER 258—H. F. No. 1722

An act relating to taxes and assessments and penalties, interest and costs thereon against real estate heretofore paid or assigned for less than the full amount thereof under and pursuant to Laws 1931, Chapter 129, or Laws 1933, Chapter 414, or any other applicable statute, and validating assignments and proceedings thereunder and validating records of certain deeds and other instruments conveying such real estate in certain cases.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Tax payments made under unconstitutional act validated.—In every case where the proper public officials acting under and pursuant to Laws 1931, Chapter 129, or Laws 1933, Chapter 414, or any other applicable statute, have heretofore certified and accepted in full payment and discharge of any taxes and assessments and penalties, interest and costs thereon against any parcel of land or for an assignment thereof, an amount which was less than the full amount of such taxes and assessments and penalties, interest and costs, but not less than the amounts fixed by said laws, the said amount for which receipt in full or assignment was given shall constitute payment in full of such taxes and assessments and penalties, interest and costs in so far as the state and any of its subdivisions are concerned; and any and all liens of the state and its subdivisions against such parcel of land on account of such taxes and assessments and penalties, interest and costs are hereby released and discharged. Such payment shall have the same force and effect for all purposes as if the said taxes and assessments and penalties, interest and costs had been paid in full. Where any assignment has been given pursuant to said laws, and upon payment therefor of an amount not less than the amount fixed thereby such assignment, and all notices of expiration of the time for redemption, or other proceedings taken thereunder, are hereby legalized and validated as against any claims or defenses of the state and its subdivisions, or any person having or claiming any right, title or interest in the premises involved therein.

Sec. 2. In every case where any taxes and assessments and penalties, interest and costs thereon against any parcel of land have heretofore been paid or assigned, for less than the full amount thereof under and pursuant to Laws 1931, Chapter 129, or Laws 1933, Chapter 414, or any other applicable statute, but not less than the amounts fixed by said laws, the record or filing of any deed or other instrument conveying such parcel of land, which was recorded in the office of the register of deeds, or filed in the office of the registrar of titles of the proper county subsequent to the making of such payment and prior to the passage of this act, is hereby legalized and made valid and effective to all intents and purposes as against the objection that the full amount of such taxes and assessments and penalties, interest and costs had not been paid prior to the recording or filing of such instrument; provided that the provisions of this section shall not affect any action or proceeding now pending in any of the courts in this state.

✓ Approved April 24, 1935.
