

CHAPTER 292—H. F. No. 1712

An act authorizing the enforcement of certain agreements between employers of labor by the district courts of this State by restraining order and/or temporary injunction and/or permanent injunction.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Injunctions in labor disputes.—Whenever any group of employers of labor, residing or operating in this state, have, by written agreement between themselves, agreed upon certain minimum wages to be paid to their employees, hours of labor, and/or other conditions of employment, and such agreement is wilfully violated, then, in that event, any one or more of such employers, parties to the agreement, may, by an appropriate action in a district court, make application for a restraining order, and/or temporary injunction, and/or permanent injunction, against the party or parties so violating said agreement, to restrain the violation thereof as to the minimum wages, hours of labor and the other conditions of employment specified in said agreement, and proof of wilful violation of said agreement in respect to any or either thereof, shall be sufficient grounds for the issuance of such restraining order and/or temporary injunction and/or permanent injunction.

Sec. 2. Limitation of act.—This act shall not apply to actions to enjoin the violation of open or closed shop agreements nor to actions to enjoin the violation of agreements or so-called codes of fair competition made or established pursuant to any state or Federal law.

Sec. 3. Application of act.—The provisions of Laws 1933, Chapter 416, shall not apply to actions or proceedings to which this act applies.

Approved April 24, 1935.

CHAPTER 293—S. F. No. 330

An act to amend Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, Sections 1731 and 1732, providing for the acquisition, improvements and maintenance of public parks and golf courses by cities of the fourth class.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:
