

3. That its action is against the best interests of the territory affected.

Such appeal shall be taken by serving upon the county auditor within thirty days from the making of the order a notice of appeal, specifying the grounds thereof. The appellant shall also execute and deliver to the auditor a bond to the county in the sum of one hundred dollars, to be approved by the county auditor, conditioned for the payments of all costs taxed against the appellant on such appeal. Such further proceedings shall be had upon such appeal as upon other appeals from the county board.

The provisions of this Act relating to appeals shall not apply to any action or proceeding now pending involving the separation of land from any village."

Approved April 1, 1935.

---

CHAPTER 91—H. F. No. 617.

An act validating and ratifying certain proceedings heretofore held for the amendment of home rule charters of cities of the fourth class.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota :

Section 1. Certain Acts validated and ratified.—Whenever a board of freeholders of any city of the fourth class, having a home rule charter adopted pursuant to the provisions of Article 4, Section 36, of the Constitution of the State of Minnesota, has heretofore proposed amendments to such charter, and such amendments have been submitted as in the case of such original charter, and the proposals have been published for at least thirty days, and three-fifths of those lawfully voting at an election have declared in favor of such amendments so proposed, all as required by Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, Section 1286, such amendments are hereby validated and ratified as duly adopted amendments to such home rule charter, although in the ballots upon which such amendments were voted, the provisions of such charter to be amended were only referred to by number and there was not briefly indicated thereon the general nature of each such amendment, as required by Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, Section 1286.

✓ Approved April 1, 1935.