

Sec. 2. Proceedings validated.—That when such steps are taken to renew the corporate existence of such association, such proceedings shall relate back to the date of the expiration of such original corporate period; and when said period is extended as provided by this act, all corporate acts and contracts done, performed, made and entered into after the expiration of said original period shall be and each is hereby declared to be legal and valid.

Approved January 15, 1936.

CHAPTER 29—H. F. No. 14.

An act relating to and authorizing the creation of a combined recreational council jointly by certain villages and independent school districts where such village is located within the limits of such independent school district.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota :

Section 1. Joint recreational council authorized.—Any village to which this act shall apply, which is now authorized by law to expend moneys for recreational purposes, which is located within the territorial limits of any independent school district, which district is also authorized by law to expend moneys for recreational purposes, may combine with such independent school district to form and create a combined recreational council, as hereinafter provided, and with the powers and authority as hereinafter provided.

Sec. 2. Creation of council.—The governing boards of such village and of such independent school district may by resolution passed by a majority vote of each governing body, create a recreational council consisting of two members of such village council and two members of the governing board of such independent school district, to be known as a combined recreational council. Such recreational council so formed shall have authority to maintain recreational activities, but shall have no authority to incur any obligations in connection therewith except such as are expressly authorized by the governing bodies of both of such respective municipalities.

Sec. 3. Expenditure of moneys.—The said village shall not expend more money than it is authorized by law to expend for such purpose and such independent school district shall not expend more money for such purpose than it is authorized to expend, and such combined recreational council shall not be authorized to incur indebtedness in excess of such amounts nor in excess of the amounts as set aside for such purpose by the governing bodies of such village and such independent school district, which bodies are hereby authorized to create and set apart a budget for such combined expenditures and to designate the proportionate amount of such expenditures to be met by each respective municipality.

Sec. 4. Members to serve without pay.—The members of such combined recreational council shall serve without pay, and their respective terms of office shall expire at the end of the time for which they are appointed, not to exceed their term of office for which they have been elected to the respective governing bodies.

Approved January 15, 1936.

CHAPTER 30—H. F. No. 69.

An act authorizing the renewal of the period of corporate existence of certain corporations whose period of duration has expired without renewal thereof.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Corporate existence of county agricultural societies extended.—Any county agricultural society, which is a member of the state agricultural society of the state of Minnesota, whose period of duration has expired less than two years before the passage of this act and which has continued to carry on its business without a renewal of its said period, may renew the period of its corporate existence for an additional term of not to exceed 30 years from the date of such expiration, with the same force and effect as if such renewal has been effected before its said period of duration expired, by taking the proceedings provided by law for the renewal of the corporate existence of such corporation in cases where such renewal is made before the end of its period of duration. Provided, however, that the proceedings to obtain such renewal shall be taken within six months after the passage of this act; and provided further, that this act shall not affect any pending litigation, nor apply to any corporation whose charter