CHAPTER 30—H. F. No. 69.

An act authorizing the renewal of the period of corporate existence of certain corporations whose period of duration has expired without renewal thereof.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Corporate existence of county agricultural societies extended.—Any county agricultural society, which is a member of the state agricultural society of the state of Minnesota, whose period of duration has expired less than two years before the passage of this act and which has continued to carry on its business without a renewal of its said period, may renew the period of its corporate existence for an additional term of not to exceed 30 years from the date of such expiration, with the same force and effect as if such renewal has been effected before its said period of duration expired, by taking the proceedings provided by law for the renewal of the corporate existence of such corporation in cases where such renewal is made before the end of its period of duration. Provided, however, that the proceedings to obtain such renewal shall be taken within six months after the passage of this act; and provided further, that this act shall not affect any pending litigation, nor apply to any corporation whose charter has been declared forfeited by any court of competent jurisdiction in this state.

Sec. 2. Proceedings validated.—That when such steps are taken to renew the corporate existence of such association, such proceedings shall relate back to the date of the expiration of such original corporate period; and when said period is extended as provided by this act, all corporate acts and contracts done, performed, made and entered into after the expiration of said original period shall be and each is hereby declared to be legal and valid.

Approved January 15, 1936.

CHAPTER 31—H. F. No. 95.

An act to amend Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, (1934 Supplement), Sections 2816-4 and 2816-5, relating to the authorization of school districts to contract in certain cases with cities or villages, or certain departments thereof, for the heating of its buildings.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. May make heating contracts.—Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, (1934 Supplement), Section 2816-4, is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

"2816-4. That the governing board of any school district having one or more buildings within a city or village maintaining a municipal central heating plant may contract with such city or village or the water, light, power, and building commission of said city or village or the board having the control of said central heating plant for the furnishing of heat for said buildings for such a term as it may deem for the best interest of the district, not, however, exceeding ten years."

Sec. 2. May advance money.—Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, (1934 Supplement), Section 2816-5, is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

"2816-5. Where it is necessary for such city or village to lay mains or pipes to connect said buildings with its heating system, the said district is authorized to advance to such city
