

ically provided by this act, such bonds shall be controlled as to procedure in all other respects by the terms of Laws 1927, Chapter 131.

Sec. 5. To be construed liberally.—That the terms of this act shall be liberally construed in order to make effective its purposes in any proceeding, action or suit wherein the reasonableness or validity of this act may or shall be challenged.

Sec. 6. Provisions to be severable.—That the terms and provisions of this act are hereby declared to be separable, and that if any part or provision of this act shall be declared unconstitutional by any court of competent jurisdiction, such judicial declaration shall not affect or invalidate any other part or provision of this act.

Sec. 7. Are additional powers.—That the powers granted in and by this act are in addition to all existing powers of any such city, and this act shall apply to such cities as now are, or hereafter may be, governed by a charter adopted pursuant to the Constitution of the State of Minnesota, Article 4, Section 36.

Sec. 8. Construction of act.—That nothing contained in this act shall be construed to repeal or modify the provisions of any charter of any city adopted under and pursuant to the Constitution of the State of Minnesota, Article 4, Section 36, requiring any ordinance of any such city to be subject to the right of referendum secured to the electors of any such city by the charter thereof.

Approved January 18, 1936.

---

CHAPTER 45—H. F. No. 86.

An act validating and ratifying certain proceedings heretofore had for the passage and amendment of ordinances and resolutions in cities of the fourth class having a home rule charter and having a population of more than 2,000 and less than 2,500 and an assessed valuation, excluding moneys and credits, of more than $500,000 and less than $1,000,000.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Acts validated.—Whenever, prior to the passage of this act, in any city of the fourth class having a population of more than 2,000 and less than 2,500 and an assessed valuation, excluding moneys and credits, of more than $500,000 and less than $1,000,000, and having a home rule charter adopted pursuant to the Constitution of the State of Minnesota, Article 4, Section 36, which provides that ordinances and resolutions having the force and effect of ordinances shall be passed by an aye and nay vote of the council, the minutes of the clerk of such city show that ordinances and resolutions have been passed without calling for the ayes and nays, and whenever in any such city an affidavit of publication of ordinances and resolutions has in fact been made but not filed with the city clerk, and whenever in any such city ordinances and resolutions have been introduced at an adjourned regular meeting of the council and have been thereafter considered at an adjourned or special meeting of the council, such proceedings relating to such ordinances and resolutions are hereby legalized and made valid and effectual for all purposes and declared to be of the same force and effect as though all charter and statutory provisions had been fully complied with.

Sec. 2. This act shall not affect any action or proceeding now pending.

Approved January 18, 1936..

---

CHAPTER 46—H. F. No. 134.

An act authorizing certain villages in the State of Minnesota to transfer funds from one village fund to another.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota :

Section 1. Villages may transfer funds in certain cases.— In any county in this state, having a population of not less than 26,500 nor more than 28,000 inhabitants, and an assessed valuation for taxation purposes of not less than $9,000,000 nor more than $14,000,000, and having not less than 27, nor more than 29, full or fractional congressional townships, and wherein any village council, or other governing body, of any village in such county having a population of not less than 1125 people and not over 1250 people, and an assessed valuation of all taxable real and personal property, according to the last official valuation of such property, of not less than $309,000 and not over $315,000, has by unanimous agree-