

Section 1. Salary and clerk hire of Judge of Probate in certain counties.—In each county in this state now or hereafter containing a city of the second class and not less than 18, nor more than 21 congressional townships, and having a population of not less than 34,000 and not more than 40,000, and having an assessed valuation including money and credits of not less than $25,000,000 and not more than $30,000,000, as officially equalized by the state tax commission, the salary of the judge of probate shall be $3,000 per annum, and the salary of the clerk of probate court shall be the sum of not less than $1,080 nor more than $1,500 per annum.

Sec. 2. To be in full compensation.—The above specified salary and allowance for clerk hire shall be in full compensation for all services performed for any such county as probate judge and also while acting in the capacity of judge of juvenile court except for such fees as are now provided by law and shall be paid in the same manner as the salaries of other employees in said county are paid.

Sec. 3. Law repealed.—Laws 1935, Chapter 191, is hereby repealed.

Approved January 18, 1936.

CHAPTER 57—S. F. No. 43.

An act to amend Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, Sections 4503 and 4504, relating to the transportation of feeble-minded and epileptic persons.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Transportation of feeble-minded and epileptic persons.—That Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, Section 4503, be amended so as to read as follows:

"4503. It shall be the duty of the sheriff of any county, upon the request of the state board of control, to take charge of and transport any feeble-minded or any epileptic person who has been committed by the probate court of his county to the care and custody of the state board of control to such institution as may be designated by said board, and there deliver such feeble-minded or epileptic person to the superintendent of said institution."

Sec. 2. Not to receive additional compensation.—That Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, Section 4504, be amended so as to read as follows:

"4504. In counties where the sheriff receives a salary in full compensation for official services performed by him for his county, the sheriff shall receive no additional compensation for services performed by him under the provisions of this act, but he shall be reimbursed by the county for the necessary and reasonable expenses incurred by him in taking charge of and transporting such feeble-minded or epileptic person to such institution as aforesaid and the subsistence of himself and such feeble-minded or epileptic person while en route.

In counties where the sheriff does not receive a salary as aforesaid he shall be paid three (3) dollars a day for the time actually and necessarily employed in performance of the service, together with expenses as above specified.

In case the feeble-minded or epileptic person shall be a female, the sheriff shall appoint some suitable woman to act in his place, and stead, and in such case the person so appointed shall have and exercise all the powers vested in the sheriff and shall be paid the sum of three (3) dollars per day for the time necessarily and actually employed in the performance of such service, together with reimbursement for expenses as hereinbefore provided for."

Approved January 21, 1936.
