

RESOLUTION No. 1—H. F. No. 218.

A joint resolution providing for adjournment of the House of Representatives and the Senate from December 21, 1935, to December 30, 1935.

WHEREAS, Under Section 6, Article IV of the Constitution of the State of Minnesota, neither House of the Legislature may adjourn for more than three days (Sundays excepted) without the consent of the other House, and

WHEREAS, It is deemed advisable and expedient that an adjournment for more than three days be taken at this extra session of the Minnesota Legislature,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the House of Representatives of the State of Minnesota, the Senate concurring herein, that the Senate and the House of the Minnesota Legislature called into session by proclamation of the Governor to be held December 2, 1935, do each with the consent of the other, recess and adjourn on Saturday, December 21, 1935, until Monday, December 30, 1935, at 3:00 o'clock P. M.

Approved December 20, 1935.

RESOLUTION No. 2—H. F. No. 165.

A concurrent resolution memorializing the President of the United States and the Congress of the United States that it is the sense of the members of the Minnesota Legislature that the government of the United States should perform its solemn promise and duty and place American agriculture on the basis of equality with other industries by providing an adequate system of credit, and that adequate legislation to that end should be adopted at the earliest possible date.

WHEREAS, the farmers throughout the entire United States have lost and are losing their lands and chattels through inability to refinance loans and their property because of high taxes and interest rates and low prices of agricultural commodities, and

WHEREAS, agriculture is the basic industry of this country and there can be no sound business prosperity unless the business of agriculture is placed on a sound basis and on an equal basis with other industries, and

WHEREAS, a bill has been introduced in the Senate of the United States known as the Farmers' Farm Relief Act, commonly called the Frazier Bill, and

A bill to liquidate and refinance agricultural indebtedness, and to encourage and promote agriculture, commerce and industry, by establishing an efficient credit system, through which the unjust and unequal burdens placed upon agriculture, during the period of price fixing and deflation, may be lightened, by providing for the liquidation and refinancing of farm mortgages and farm indebtedness at a reduced rate of interest through the Federal farm loan system, the Federal reserve banking system and the postal savings depository system and creating a Board of Agriculture to supervise the same, and

WHEREAS, this bill is a sound economic measure designed to remedy the inequalities under which agriculture is now laboring

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the House of Representatives of the State of Minnesota, the Senate concurring, that the Congress of the United States be and it is hereby urgently petitioned to enact the said bill into law, and that the President of the United States be urged to approve said measure after its passage,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Minnesota members of the United States Senate and the Representatives in Congress from the State of Minnesota be and they are hereby petitioned and most earnestly urged to use their best efforts to bring about a speedy enactment of said legislation.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a duly authenticated copy of this resolution be presented to the President of the United States, to the presiding officers of the Senate and of the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States and to each of the Senators and Representatives from the State of Minnesota in the Congress of the United States.

Approved January 18, 1936.
