

CHAPTER 147—H. F. No. 970

An act to amend Laws of 1931, Chapter 265, Section 1, relating to elections in certain townships and authorizing the division of townships into voting precincts in certain cases.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Townships may be divided into voting precincts in certain cases.—That Laws of 1931, Chapter 265, Section 1, is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

“Section 1. The Board of Supervisors in any Town in this State having within the boundaries thereof, two or more duly incorporated Villages which are a part of such Town for election and assessment purposes, and having within the boundaries thereof an unincorporated contiguous platted area, in which platted area reside not less than sixty (60) legal voters, may, by resolution adopted thirty days in advance of the annual town meeting, provide for the division of such township into not more than three voting districts for the purpose of electing town officers, and in such resolution shall designate a polling place for each voting district established and fix the hours of voting for candidates for town offices at such election and shall appoint two judges and one clerk to serve in each voting district as an election board. Such division shall be only for the purpose of electing candidates for town office and shall not change the manner of transacting other business at town meetings. The notice of the annual meeting in such case shall describe the different voting districts and the polling places in each and shall state that candidates for town office will be voted on only at such polling places and that all other business of the annual meeting will be transacted at the usual place of meeting, the time and place of which shall be specified in such notice.”

Approved April 6, 1937.
