

- (1) if benefits have been paid with respect thereto;
- (2) unless the individual was eligible for benefits with respect thereto in all respects except for the requirements of subsections (b) and (c) of this section;
- (3) unless it occurs within the 13 consecutive weeks preceding the week for which he claims benefits, provided that this condition shall not interrupt the payment of benefits for consecutive weeks of unemployment nor require any individual who, prior to the first day of his benefit year, shall have accumulated such two waiting period weeks, to accumulate more than three additional waiting period weeks during his ensuing benefit year;

(4) unless it occurs after benefits first could become payable to any individual under this act.

(e) He has within the first four out of the last five completed calendar quarters immediately preceding the first day of his benefit year, earned wages for employment by employers of not less than sixteen times his weekly benefit amount, provided, that when the first day of a benefit year shall occur during the first calendar quarter in the year 1938, this requirement shall be deemed to be satisfied if the individual, within the first three out of the last four completed calendar quarters immediately preceding the first day of such benefit year, has earned wages for employment by employers of not less than twelve times his weekly benefit amount; and provided further, that if the aforesaid wages of an individual during such period of three or four calendar quarters have been reduced below the required amount because of some mental or physical disability due to services in the armed forces of the United States in time of war, wages earned by such an individual in employment by an employer during his base period, shall be substituted for those earned in such periods of three or four calendar quarters."

Sec. 3. That this act shall be in force and effect from and after its passage.

Approved March 2, 1937.
