CHAPTER 475—H. F. No. 830

An act to amend Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, Section 211, as amended by Laws 1929, and Chapter 201, and Chapter 408, relating to retirement of justices of the supreme court and judges of the district court of this state, and providing for their compensation.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Law amended.—Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, Section 211, as amended by Laws 1929, Chapters 201, and 408, is hereby amended to read as follows:

"211. Retirement of Supreme Court Justices.—When a justice of the supreme court or a judge of the district court shall be retired under the provision of Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, Section 210, he shall receive the compensation allotted to his office for the remainder of his said term, or, if a justice of the supreme court is then past 70 years of age, and has served as a justice of the supreme court, or as such justice and as a commissioner of the supreme court or a judge of the district court of this state, or either, continuously for 25 years or more or if a judge of the district court is then past 70 years of age, and has served as a judge of the district court, or as such judge and as a judge of a municipal court or a probate court of this state, or either, continuously for 25 years or more, he shall receive one-half of the compensation allotted to his office at the time of such retirement for the remainder of his life, to be paid at the time, and the manner provided by law.

When a justice of the supreme court has served continuously for 25 years or more, either as a justice of the supreme court, or as a justice of the supreme court and a judge of the district court or a commissioner of the supreme court, and is then past the age of 70 years, or when a judge of the district court has served continuously for 25 years or more, either as a judge of the district court, or as a judge of the district court, or as a judge of the district court and a judge of a municipal court or a probate court of this state, and is then past 70 years of age, and has not been retired under the provisions of existing law, he may retire from further service as such judge, and shall receive one-half of the compensation allotted to his office at the time of such retirement for the remainder of his life, to be paid in the manner provided by law for the payment of the salary of such justice or judge."

Approved April 26, 1937.
