CHAPTER 56—S. F. No. 147

An act amending Laws 1929, Chapter 351, as amended by Laws 1931, Chapter 155, Section 10½, to authorize municipalities in certain cases to issue bonds, certificates of indebtedness, warrants or other form of obligation in anticipation of the collection of current year taxes in certain cases.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Municipalities may issue bonds in certain cases.—Laws 1929, Chapter 351, as amended by Laws 1931, Chapter 155, Section 10½, is hereby amended to read as follows:

"Section 10½. If in any year it shall become actually necessary to incur indebtedness or expend funds for the purpose of meeting court expenses, mothers' pension allowances, poor relief and other items, the amounts of which are beyond the control of the governing body of such municipality and could not be reasonably and definitely anticipated and fixed at the time of making the budget contemplated by Section 10, the governing body of such municipality may apply to the proper district court for an order permitting the incurring and payment of such additional expenditures. Such application shall be publicly heard by said court at the county seat of the county, after two weeks published notice thereof; and, if the court shall find such additional indebtedness or expenditures to be actually necessary and within the terms of this section, and that the amount thereof could not have been reasonably and definitely anticipated at the time of making the budget, and could not be reasonably met by or out of allotments in the budget to such purposes, or by or out of the emergency fund, said court may make an order permitting and authorizing such additional indebtedness or expenditures, or so much thereof as it shall find to be proper.
