CHAPTER 71—H. F. No. 530

An act to extend the time for closing the affairs and disposing of the property of certain corporations whose existence has been terminated by forfeiture or otherwise, not including, however, corporations having the power of eminent domain.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Time for closing affairs of certain corporations extended.—Where any corporation, other than a corporation having the power of eminent domain, whose existence was terminated on or before July 1, 1934, by forfeiture or by expiration of its period of duration as fixed by its charter or otherwise, did not or shall not fully close its affairs and convey all of its property within the period of three years succeeding the date of such termination, and where such corporation has or claims or appears to have or claim any interest in or to any property, the time limit for so closing its affairs and disposing of its property is hereby extended for two years from and after the passage of this act for the purpose of permitting any such corporation to close its affairs and dispose of its property, and said extension hereby made shall also apply for the purpose of authorizing and permitting service of process in actions at law or in equity in order that any such corporation may prosecute and defend actions and be served with process therein.

Sec. 2. Corporation may transfer its property.—Any such corporation during such two year period when authorized by a majority vote of its board of directors and the written consent of the holders of a majority of the shares of stock of the company, issued and outstanding, having voting power, may transfer and convey all or any part of its property to a trustee or trustees with power of sale in trust for the benefit of all of the stockholders of such corporation.

Sec. 3. Transfers legalized.—Any and all transfers and conveyances of property by any such corporation and the service of process by or against any such corporation, made or done after the date of termination of its corporate existence and on or before two years after the passage of this act, are hereby legalized and made of the same force and effect as if the same had been made or done within three years after the date of termination of its corporate existence.

Sec. 4. Not to affect pending action.—This act shall not affect any action or proceeding now pending.

Sec. 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after passage.

Approved March 19, 1937.

CHAPTER 72—H. F. No. 497

An act to amend Sections 1 and 6, Chapter 348, Laws of 1935, relating to the eradication of noxious weeds.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Eradication of noxious weeds.—That Section 1 of Chapter 348, Laws of 1935, be amended so as to read as follows:

“Section 1. The commissioner of agriculture, dairy and food, hereinafter in this act called the commissioner, is hereby authorized and it shall be his duty to administer this act and he shall have the authority to make, promulgate and enforce such rules and regulations as he shall deem necessary to so do, and he shall cooperate with the dean of the department of agriculture of the University of Minnesota in the study of the life habits and eradication methods of primary noxious weeds and from time to time shall publish such information upon the subject as may be of public interest and value to the agricultural communities of the state.

When farm produce is grown on lands secured under the provisions of this act for the study of life habits and eradication methods,
