PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the fiftieth Legislature adjourned without enacting a tax program for the next biennium and without passing needed appropriations for relief and education, and

WHEREAS, it is necessary that a tax program be enacted which will balance the state's budget and reduce the heavy tax load which is now borne by real property, and

WHEREAS, unless such a tax program is enacted, it will be necessary to very sharply raise the millage rate on real property to the great detriment of a large part of our population,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Elmer A. Benson, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby summon the members of the Legislature to convene in extra session on MONDAY, May 24, 1937, at 12 o'clock noon.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed this 28th day of April, 1937.

ELMER A. BENSON,
Governor of Minnesota.

(Great Seal)

Attest:
MIKE HOLM,
Secretary of State.

The annotations in bold-face type, preceding each section, are no part of the law, but are inserted as required by statute.

The matter in italics shows where a section of a law previously enacted has been changed.
