✓ CHAPTER 10—H. F. No. 463

An act appropriating money for expenses of investigation of governmental departments and agencies of the state and of legal actions and proceedings resulting therefrom.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Appropriation for expense of investigation.—There is hereby appropriated out of any moneys in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of $50,000 or so much thereof as may be necessary from time to time for the following purposes:

1. To pay the expenses of investigation of the various governmental departments and agencies of the state to be made by a joint legislative investigation committee created or to be created at the 1939 regular session of the legislature, including the reasonable and necessary expenses of the members of such committee, compensation for necessary professional, stenographic, clerical, and other assistance employed by such committee for the purposes of such investigation, cost of publication of a report of such investigation, and other expenses necessary and incident to such investigation.

2. To pay the compensation and expenses of special assistant attorneys general, appointed by the attorney general by and with the advice and consent of the investigating committee, and other assistance appointed or employed by the attorney general and other expenses incurred by the attorney general in connection with such investigation and any legal actions or proceedings resulting therefrom.

3. To pay the compensation and expenses of special examiners, accountants, investigators, and other assistance appointed or employed by the state comptroller in connection with such investigation, to cooperate with such investigating committee and with the attorney general and the county attorney of Ramsey County, and to pay other expenses incurred by the comptroller in connection with such investigation and any legal action or proceedings resulting therefrom.

4. To reimburse the county attorney of Ramsey County for additional assistance employed and expenses incurred in connection with such investigation and any criminal prosecutions resulting therefrom.

Sec. 2. Expenditures—how made.—Expenditures hereunder shall be made only upon authorization by a majority of the following: the governor, the chairman of the rules committee of the state senate and the chairman of the rules committee of the house of representatives, provided that out of the moneys hereby appropriated the sum of $5,000 is hereby made immediately available to said joint legislative investigating committee.

Approved February 8, 1939.
