CHAPTER 104—S. F. No. 811

An act relating to dead animals and the disposition thereof, amending Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, Section 10273. Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Disposition of dead animals.—That Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, Section 10273, is hereby amended to read as follows:

"10273. Every person owning or having in charge any domestic animal that has died or been killed on account of disease shall immediately bury the carcass thereof at least three feet deep in the ground or cause the same to be consumed by fire. Provided, however, that the livestock sanitary board, through its secretary and executive officer, may issue a permit to owners of rendering plants, located within the boundaries of Minnesota, provided such rendering plants are operated and conducted as required by law, to remove carcasses of domestic animals and fowl that have died or have been killed on account of disease, over the public highways to their plants for rendering purposes in accordance with the rules and regulations adopted by the livestock sanitary board relative to transportation, rendering, and all other provisions deemed by said board to be necessary to prevent the spread of disease. No person shall sell or offer to sell, or give away such carcass when the animal died or was killed on account of disease, nor convey the same along any public road or upon any land not his own; unless in accordance with a special permit as hereinbefore provided. Nor shall any person negligently or willfully permit diseased animals owned or controlled by him to escape his control or to run at large. Every violation of any provision of this act shall be a misdemeanor."

Approved March 31, 1939.
