An act to extend the time for closing the affairs and disposing of the property of certain corporations whose existence has been terminated by forfeiture or otherwise, not including, however, corporations having the power of eminent domain.
Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Time of closing affairs of certain corporations extended.—Where any corporation, other than a corporation having the power of eminent domain, whose existence was terminated on or before July 1, 1936, by forfeiture or by expiration of its period of duration as fixed by its charter or otherwise, did not or shall not fully close its affairs and convey all of its property within the period of three years succeeding the date of such termination, and where such corporation has or claims or appears to have or claim any interest in or to any property, the time limit for so closing its affairs and disposing of its property is hereby extended for two years from and after the passage of this act for the purpose of permitting any such corporation to close its affairs and dispose of its property, and said extension hereby made shall also apply for the purpose of authorizing and permitting service of process in actions at law or in equity in order that any such corporation may prosecute and defend actions and be served with process therein.
