CHAPTER 153—S. F. No. 686

An act to amend Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, Section 659, providing for the filling of vacancies occurring in county offices by the county board so as to provide for the performance of the functions of the office in which vacancy occurs by the chief deputy or first assistant until the vacancy is filled by the county board.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota :

Section 1. Vacancies. — Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, Section 659 is hereby amended so as to read as follows :

"Section 659. . Whenever a vacancy occurs in the office of county auditor, county treasurer, register of deeds, sheriff, county attorney, county surveyor, coroner, or county superintendent, the county board shall fill the same by appointment. For that purpose it shall meet at the usual place of meeting, upon one day's notice from the chairman or clerk, which shall be served personally upon each member in the same manner as a district court summons is authorized to be served. The person so appointed shall give the bond and take the oath required by law, and shall hold for the remainder of the unexpired term, and until his successor qualifies; provided, that whenever such vacancy occurs in any of the offices hereinbefore mentioned in which office there is a chief deputy or first assistant, then the said chief deputy or first assistant is empowered and authorized to perform all of the duties and functions of the said office until such time as the same is filled by appointment by the said county board."

Approved April 8, 1939.
